POLICE INVESTIGATE A SUSPICIOUS DEATH IN BAY HO.

San Diego Police Department homicide detectives are investigating a suspicious death in the Bay Ho Community.

On Sunday, October 19, 2014, at approximately 10 a.m., San Diego Police Officers received a radio call of a deceased male at a residence in the 4700 block of Monongahela Street. Officers found a 41 year-old male lying in the backyard of the home. He had sustained blunt force trauma to his upper torso and was unresponsive. Medical intervention was unsuccessful and the male was pronounced deceased at the scene.

At this juncture, it is unknown if the male's death was accidental. Homicide Investigators were called to the scene out of an abundance of caution and the male will be undergoing an autopsy by the San Diego County Medical Examiner's Office in the next few days.

The victim's identity is known but will not be released until additional family notifications are made.

Detectives continue to conduct follow-up interviews at the residence and traffic should not be impacted.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
