

Daniel Aguirre Wanted for Attempted Kidnapping

Up to $1,000 Reward Offered

July 16, 2015

San Diego County Crime Stoppers and investigators from the National City Police Department are asking for assistance from the public to help locate Daniel Aguirre who is wanted for attempted kidnapping.

On July 1, 2015, at 5:15 p.m., a female victim was walking in the 2200 block of Highland Avenue, in National City. The female's ex-boyfriend identified as Daniel Aguirre, drove up next to her, stopped and got out of his vehicle. Aguirre grabbed the victim and began to drag her towards his car. Aguirre punched the victim in the face and tried pushing her into his vehicle. Numerous citizens stopped to help the victim get away from Aguirre. Aguirre fled the scene in his vehicle. Aguirre's vehicle has been recovered, but he remains at large.

Daniel Aguirre is described as a Hispanic male, 19-years-old, 5'4" tall, 135 lbs, black hair and brown eyes. Aguirre has a tattoo of "M Street" on his right arm. Aguirre is known to frequent the Mid-City area of San Diego.

Anyone with information on the location of Aguirre is asked to call the National City Police Department at (619) 336-4411 or the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at (888) 580-8477. Crime Stoppers is offering up to a $1,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to an arrest in this case. Anonymous email and text messages can be sent via www.sdcrimestoppers.org.

- Media inquiries about the case should be directed to Sergeant Alex Hernandez at (619) 336-4423.
- Media inquiries about Crime Stoppers can be directed to Officer Mark Herring at (619) 531-1500.
