Robbery series arrest

During the months of July and August, Mid-City 810's Detectives have been investigating a series of pedestrian strong arm robberies and grand theft person cases where high end cell phones have been taken. During the investigation, Detectives developed information that identified Damar CHATTMAN as the suspect who was committing the robberies.

On 08/05/15, Mid-City 810's Detectives, along with Mid-City Patrol Officers, took CHATTMAN into custody at his residence without incident. A subsequent search of his residence yielded evidence relating to the robberies. Detectives also developed additional information that tied CHATTMAN to other crimes that have yet to be reported to the police. Mid-City Detectives are currently following up on those cases.

CHATTMAN was subsequently booked into Central Jail for multiple counts of robbery, one count grand theft person, and a probation violation.

The investigation is continuing.

If you have any further questions, Detective Sergeant Don Williams is available at 619-516-3006 or email williamsdw@pd.sandiego.gov
