Arrest of Serial Burglary Suspect in North Park

San Diego, CA – San Diego police Mid-City detectives and officers arrested an 18-year-old man Tuesday in connection with a hot prowl burglary series that began on August 20, 2015.

“Detectives worked diligently to investigate nine cases in the North Park and Adams North communities,” Said Lieutenant Carole Beason of Mid-City Division. “During the course of the investigation, Dominique Eatmon (6-12-97) was identified as a possible suspect and probable cause to arrest was established. The suspect information was shared with officers who patrol the Mid-City communities”

On September 15th, patrol officers contacted Eatmon for littering and placed him under arrest.

“Detectives are still investigating these cases and have already located several items of stolen property,” Lt. Beason explained.

Eatmon was booked into county jail on nine counts of hot prowl burglary and three counts of vehicle burglary.
