Suspects caught in Northeastern Burglary Series

San Diego, CA – Over the last 2 months, there have been multiple residential hot prowl burglaries in the San Diego Police Department's Northeastern, Northern, Eastern and Northwestern Commands, as well as the Sheriff's Department North Coastal Station. All of these cases have a similar M.O.

On September 27, 2015, a residential hot prowl burglary series began in Northeastern Division. Over the next 2 weeks, a total of 9 burglaries were reported. Most were in the Scripps Ranch community.

Between October 3, 2015 and October 7, 2015, Northeastern Detectives worked with community members to develop several leads in the investigations. This collaborative effort resulted in stolen property being recovered and four individuals being taken into custody; two juveniles and two adults. The adults have been identified as Keith Lashaun Thomas (19 years old) and Antonio Kresic (21 years old).

The two juvenile suspects were booked into Juvenile Hall on multiple counts of residential burglary. Antonio Kresic and Keith Thomas were booked into County Jail for multiple counts of residential burglary.

This investigation is ongoing. Anyone who may have additional information regarding this burglary series is encouraged to contact Officer Susan Kelly at (858) 538-8026 or SDPD at (619) 531-2000.

Victims are encouraged to come to Northeastern Division, 13396 Salmon River Rd. San Diego, CA 92129 on Wednesday, October 14, 2015 between 10:00 am and 3:00 pm to identify their property. Victims need to bring personal ID and any paperwork that could assist with identification of their property.

Captain Dawn Summers is available for interviews at Northeastern Division today, October 9, 2015, between 3:00pm and 3:30pm.
