POLICE ARREST SECOND SUSPECT IN 2001 ENCANTO HOMICIDE

On January 28, 2001, Alexander Ceballos was seated in his parked vehicle in the 900 block of Merlin Drive when his companion, who was outside of the vehicle, became involved in a confrontation with two Hispanic males. One of the Hispanic males then pulled out a gun and began firing at Ceballos and his companion. Ceballos tried to drive away, but was struck by gunfire and he crashed his vehicle into a nearby building. Ceballos later died from his wounds. The case was investigated by the San Diego Police Homicide Unit, but remained unsolved for many years.

San Diego Police Cold Case Homicide Detectives recently resumed the investigation and received additional information which identified the suspects in the murder of Alexander Ceballos. Based on this new information, detectives, in conjunction with the District Attorney's Office, conducted extensive investigative follow-ups to bring forward a prosecutable case.

On Wednesday, October 21, 2015, at 10:50 p.m., 32-year-old Jose Samaniego was arrested at the Otay Mesa Port of Entry for the murder of Alexander Ceballos. Samaniego was booked into County Jail and is scheduled to be arraigned on Friday, October 23, 2015, at 1:30 p.m.

On Thursday, October 8, 2015, 37-year-old Enrique Palomino was charged with the murder of Alexander Ceballos. He has already been arraigned and is currently in custody at the San Diego County Jail.

Anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to call the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit or Crime Stoppers at 888-580-8477.
