Suspects arrested for La Jolla Home Invasion

San Diego, CA – Justin Jeffrey Naranjo and Jose Luis Delgado were arrested on November 5th for a burglary they committed on July 13, 2015 at 1400 Rodeo Drive. During that evening, they entered an 83 year-old woman's house through the kitchen window while she was still home. One of the suspects identified himself as a Logan Heights police officer while the other suspect ransacked the residence. Naranjo and Delgado took Philips' jewelry, televisions and more than $800 dollars in cash from the residence. Philips was not injured during the incident and called the police after they left.

Officers and detectives collected evidence from the scene that allowed them to identify Naranjo and Delgado as the suspects involved in this incident. Their discovery also revealed Naranjo and Delgado, along with some of their other associates, were responsible for burglaries in Hermosa Beach, Newport Beach, and other affluent communities in or near Los Angeles County. The San Diego Police Department is proud to say they have been booked into San Diego Central Jail.

Lieutenant Todd Griffin will be available today from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. for interviews regarding this case. He can be reached by e-mail at wgriffin@pd.sandiego.gov or phone #619-533-5752.
