POLICE INVESTIGATE HOMICIDE IN ROLANDO PARK

On Friday, November 6, 2015, at 9:02 a.m., the San Diego Police Department received a 911 call of an injured male at a residence in the 6800 block of Waite Drive.

When officers arrived, they located an unconscious 43 year old Hispanic male in the rear enclosed patio area. The male had sustained major trauma to his upper body. Medics responded, but the male was pronounced deceased at the scene.

The preliminary investigation revealed the decedent did not live at the residence, but was a regular visitor. He was found by one of the residents, who immediately called 911.

Homicide detectives and forensic specialists are currently conducting their investigation and gathering evidence. The 6800 block of Waite Drive will be closed for the next several hours.

The victim's identity is known, but will not be released pending further family notifications.

Anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to call the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit or Crime Stoppers at 888-580-8477.
