Officer's save the life of a 1 year old child

On April 6, 2015, Jessica Salas was awakened by her panicked husband because their one-year-old daughter Kendall Hidalgo wasn't breathing. Kendall had been found having a violent seizure for an unknown amount of time. The seizures were so bad that Kendall was unconscious and her face and lips were blue. Jessica dialed 911 to call for emergency services to help as she and her husband did not know how to render first aid. Jessica stated she believed her daughter was going to die. She prayed that God would send someone to save her child.

On Monday May 4th, Jessica Salas and Officers Carlson and McGrath will tell the story of how Jessica's one-year-old child's life was saved after suffering a violent seizure.

Please note we will not be facilitating interviews before May 4th.
