San Diego Police Department Apprehend Maserati Thief

San Diego, CA – On April 30, 2015, a male walked into the San Diego Maserati dealership located at 7477 Girard Ave. The male introduced himself as JT and walked around the dealership for approximately thirty minutes looking at cars. At some point JT took a key that was left on a desk and drove away in a white Maserati that was parked outside next to the front door.

The investigation revealed the suspects name as Marcus Allen 05/06/1985 of San Diego. The car was located unoccupied in a parking structure of a downtown condo complex. The Maserati was subsequently returned to San Diego Maserati.
