

The San Diego Public Library

Schlock Fest

film screenings

The Creature, an amphibious, prehistoric man-monster, inhabits the primordial depths of a tropical lagoon undisturbed until scientists intrude upon his domain. Interpreted as both a monster from hell and a primitive innocent provoked to violence, the Creature belongs to a tradition of misunderstood monsters that include Frankenstein's monster and King Kong.

FREE (First come, first served seating)

6:30 pm, Wednesday, December 22

San Diego Public Library

Auditorium--3rd floor

820 E Street--San Diego

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

This information will be made available in alternative formats upon request.

2010

www.sandiegolibrary.org