

The San Diego Public Library

Schlock Fest

film screenings

SchlockFest continues with a classic good vs. evil story with issues ranging the spectrum from international aggression to environmentalism, exploitation and greed--all this and more, with a really big moth thrown in for good measure.

FREE (First come, first served seating)
6:30 pm, Wednesday, January 26
San Diego Public Library
Auditorium--3rd floor
820 E Street--San Diego

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

This information will be made available in alternative formats upon request.

2010

www.sandiegolibrary.org