

The San Diego Public Library

SAIGON, U.S.A.

A FILM BY LINDSEY JANG AND ROBERT C. WINN IN CONJUNCTION WITH KOCE-TV.

Set in Orange County's Little Saigon, this film starts with an explosive political conflict - fifty two days of protests over a shopkeeper's display of unified Vietnam and Ho Chi Minh. The film then delves into the passions underlying the protests by following members of the older generation who still suffer from the loss of their homeland and members of the younger generation who are chasing the American dream.

OBOSD film screening

FREE (First come, first served seating)

6:30 pm, Wednesday, February 9

San Diego Public Library

Auditorium--3rd floor

820 E Street--San Diego

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

One Book
ONE SAN DIEGO

KPBS<sup>TM</sup>

This information will be made available in alternative formats upon request.

2011

www.sandiegolibrary.org