Central Library Hosts Supernatural Fantasy Author, Artist & Illustrator
Danielle D. Smith

Local Author Discusses Book Series and Her Latest Work "In the Neon"

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego Public Library will host an author talk featuring Danielle D. Smith. She will discuss her latest work, In the Neon, an illustrated spin-off novella from her angels and demons fantasy series The Psyche's Gate Saga. This event, which is free and open to the public, is at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, July 25, in the Wangenheim Rare Book Room of the Central Library, located at 820 E Street in downtown San Diego.

In the Neon is a sensuous tale of love and redemption between a beautiful human woman, Annie, and a True Native of Hell collector demon, Faustus. After enduring countless heart wrenching trials to be together, their forbidden love creates one of the main heroes of The Psyche's Gate Saga, the irresistible hunter, Skriker. Copies of the book will be available for purchase at the event and online at www.solsticepublishing.com and www.amazon.com.

Danielle D. Smith has already published Psyche's Gate, book one of The Psyche's Gate Saga and is now working on the second book, Nephil's Curse, of the planned five book series. She has also published another spin-off novella titled Black Dog & Rebel Rose and is currently working on the graphic novel version as well as a screen play of that book. Dani, as her friends call her, is also an accomplished artist and illustrated all of the covers and artwork in her books.
