

The San Diego Public Library

FDA: a History

film screenings

This documentary shows that the FDA has always been managed and run by sometimes extraordinary, but always quite human people who have been placed in the news every week-almost always by someone who is angry at them. The film clearly respects the dilemmas of the agency and its reliance on science and the law as its most exemplary strength.

FREE (First come, first served seating)
6:30 pm, Wednesday, August 31
San Diego Public Library
Auditorium--3rd floor
820 E Street--San Diego

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

This information will be made available in alternative formats upon request.

2011

www.sandiegolibrary.org