The story of Bradley Crowder and David McKay - accused of intending to firebomb the 2008 Republican National Convention - is a dramatic tale of idealism, loyalty, crime and betrayal. The film follows the radicalization of boyhood friends under the tutelage of revolutionary activist Brandon Darby. The results: eight homemade bombs, multiple domestic terrorism charges and a high-stakes entrapment defense hinging on the actions of a controversial FBI informant. Better This World goes to the heart of the war on terror and its impact on civil liberties and political dissent in post-9/11 America.
