New Central Library Announces Inaugural Winter/Spring Concert Series “The Celebration Continues!” Musicians from Los Angeles and Beyond Celebrate the New Library

SAN DIEGO – The theme of the 2014 Winter/Spring Concert Series for the City of San Diego Public Library is “The Celebration Continues!” While the roster of musicians in the 2013 Fall Concert Series emphasized San Diego musicians celebrating the new San Diego Central Library @ Joan A Irwin Jacob Common, the 2014 Winter/Spring season series will bring to the stage a number of dynamic Los Angeles-based performers as well as musicians from New York, Boston, Canada, Scotland, Germany, Spain, and Russia.

The Neave Trio will kick off the new series on Sunday, January 19, 2014 in a performance of three classics of 20th-century repertory: Fauré’s Piano Trio in D Minor (1922-23), Shostakovich’s Piano Trio No. 2 in E Minor (1944) and Schoenfield’s Rubato from Café Music (1986). The ensemble, currently in residence at San Diego State University, is composed of Anna Williams, violin; Mikhail Veselov, cello; and Toni James, piano. The FREE program will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the Library Auditorium of the new San Diego Central Library, 330 Park Blvd. (Downtown in East Village, Park Boulevard at 11th Avenue, near Petco Park). See the full schedule below for more details.

The Library began its Chamber Music Series in the mid-1950s. Critical and popular response encouraged the Library to increase the scope of the series into its present status of a Fall Concert Series and a Winter/Spring Concert Series. These series are made possible by the Friends of Central Library, the San Diego Public Library matching fund program, and public and private donations.

The concerts are very important to musicians because they provide a venue for them to perform locally. The community has responded enthusiastically as well, as shown by steadily growing attendance by musicians, music lovers, music appreciation students and San Diego residents.
