

Our Veterans, Our Communities

Veteran Art Show Opening Reception

The San Diego Public Library, with generous funding from Cal Humanities, has partnered with the Veteran Artist Program to organize an exhibition of local Veterans art. The show, in conjunction with California Reads: War Comes Home will be shown in three branches (Point Loma/Hervey, Mission Valley, and Rancho Bernardo), between October 15 and December 31, 2014.

Join us for the opening reception to celebrate the artists and honor their dedication and creativity

Saturday, October 18, 2014

2 pm - 5 pm

Point Loma/Hervey Branch Library Community Room
3701 Voltaire Street, San Diego, CA 92107 (619) 531-1539

2:30 pm Original performances from So Say We All's Veteran Writers Program
3:15 pm "Veterans Doing Art and Caught Between Creativity and Therapy," lecture by BR McDonald founder of the Veteran Artist Program

Special thanks to So Say We All and the Veterans Art Project for contributing their time and expertise to the exhibition and to the Friends of the Point Loma Library for sponsoring the reception