

Shakespeare's witty romantic comedy in 90 minutes!

FREE PLAYS TOURING THROUGHOUT THE SAN DIEGO COMMUNITY

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL

A CLASSIC PLAY BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE
DIRECTED BY BARRY EDELSTEIN

What does a woman do when the only man she wants to marry won't have her, even when the king commands it? Shakespeare's play pits the wise and witty Helena against the hotheaded courtier Bertram in a clash of wills filled with comic surprises and passionate poetry.

Central Library @ Joan and Irwin Jacobs Common
Shiley Special Events Suite • 330 Park Blvd • Tuesday, November 4th
6:30pm (doors open at 6pm) • For questions, e-mail PMiesner@sandiego.gov

Free Admission - Limited Seating

THE CAST OF ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL

Support for Globe for All includes grants from The Legler Benbough Foundation, The Parker Foundation (Gerald T. and Inez Grant Parker), The Kenneth T. and Eileen L. Norris Foundation, and the County of San Diego's Community Enhancement Program. Additional support provided by Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation.