LIBRARY TO FEATURE NEW WORKS BY LOCAL ARTIST IN VALEIRAS SCULPTURE GARDEN

Three new works by Christopher Puzio to be featured in Pattern & Structure

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego Public Library has invited Christopher Puzio to be the second artist to be featured in the Valeiras Sculpture Garden, with his exhibition Pattern & Sculpture, on the ninth floor of the Central Library @ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common.

Christopher Puzio is a local designer and sculptor who's metal works convey an obsession with geometric form and patterns. A graduate of Cranbrook Academy of Art in Detroit, Puzio works within the traditions of metalwork and craft while continually expanding the discipline's language of making to incorporate new technologies for design and fabrication.

Pattern & Structure, is a group of recent work, in which Puzio explores themes of biological growth and organization, inspired by many visits to Joshua Tree and the Sierra Nevada. The works were fabricated locally at Vincent Designs in Barrio Logan by the artist. The three large-scale sculptures will be featured in the Valeiras Sculpture Garden, adjacent to the Art Gallery. A reception is planned in conjunction with The Art of Comic-Con exhibition on Saturday, June 20th and will run through July 7, 2016.
