

MISSION HILLS-HILLCREST BRANCH LIBRARY PUBLIC ART PROJECT

Artist Office Hours

Shape Public Art for Your Library

An artist has been selected to create a permanent public artwork for the NEW Mission Hills-Hillcrest Branch Library. Meet artist Janet Zweig one-on-one, share your knowledge about the Mission Hills and Hillcrest neighborhoods and learn more about the art for your library.

Share your ideas to help the artist create a public art proposal!

- History and character of your neighborhood
- Notable local folks and their personal stories
- Legends, folklore and anecdotes about your neighborhood
- What your neighborhood is most known for
- Anything else you think is important!

Tuesday, July 21, 1:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Schedule your one-on-one session

ASAP—sessions will get booked fast!

Appointments will be held at the Mission Hills Branch Library
925 W. Washington Street
San Diego, California 92103

Sign-Up at www.SignUpGenius.com/go/20F0545ABAA2FA0F58-artist

Questions?

Call the Commission for Arts and Culture at 619.236.6800

