

Heads Up: The Many Faces of Creative Hands

These expressive ceramic busts have been hand sculpted by Braille Institute student artists. The Institute offers art classes to adults who are blind or visually impaired, providing them an opportunity to explore a variety of tactile materials.

This exhibit is on display thru August 28 in the OliverMcMillan I CAN! Center at the San Diego Central Library @ Joan ^ Irwin Jacob Common

For future information
call 619-238-6665