NOISE. (USA 2007) Urban, well-educated and fluent in its demographic, Noise takes on the very nature of civility – as articulated and defended by David Owen, a rich white Manhattan lawyer. His pent-up rage toward city noise in general and Klaxon-like car alarms specifically builds with such pressure-cooker intensity that serial vandalism comes with swift, vein-popping glee. David christens himself “the Rectifier,” earning the ire of the mayor and the folksy respect of hoi polloi. Cast: Tim Robbins, Bridget Moynahan, William Hurt. 6:30 p.m., 3rd Floor Auditorium.
