All City of San Diego Libraries to be Closed on Sunday, April 16

SAN DIEGO – All City of San Diego libraries will be closed on Easter Sunday, April 16. This includes libraries that are usually open Sunday hours. As a convenience to patrons, all library book drops will remain open to return library materials.

All City libraries will be open again with regular operating hours on Monday, April 17.

There are 35 libraries located throughout the City. For more information about the San Diego Public Library, including news, events, locations and online services, visit the Library on the City's Web site at <http://www.sandiego.gov/public-library> or call your local library.
