The San Diego Public Library invites you to a preview screening of

THE BROOKLYN CONNECTION

by Klaartje Quirijns

It's common knowledge that buying weapons in the United States is surprisingly easy, but what about outfitting a foreign guerilla army? "The Brooklyn Connection," based on material from Stacy Sullivan's book--Be Not Afraid, For You Have Sons in America--shows the terrifying ease with which a charming businessman raised $30 million during the Kosovo War, purchased weapons across the USA, and shipped them legally to Albania to be smuggled into Kosovo.

Dipak Gupta, Ph.D., Fred J. Hansen Professor of Peace Studies and director of the Institute of International Security and Conflict Resolution at San Diego State University, will facilitate a discussion following the screening.
