Is Hell Other People?

Existentialism and Everyday Life

philosophy talk

“Hell is Other People” is widely taken to be reflective of the supposed dourness of existentialism. Are existentialists anti-social? Is the existentialist outlook on life bereft of values and hope? The answers to these questions might surprise you. Join librarian Phil Gunderson, Ph.D., in a discussion of Jean-Paul Sartre’s essay “Existentialism is a Humanism”.
