Children's Book Week Celebrated at City Libraries with Special Events and Activities

85th Annual Event will be Observed Across Nation from Nov. 14-20

SAN DIEGO – Books can open whole new worlds for children, improving their lives through education. As part of the 86th annual Children's Book Week (Nov. 14-20), the City of San Diego Public Library invites all San Diego children to make a special visit to their local libraries for activities, fun events and to find books they love.

“As part of Children's Book Week, there are many great events and activities planned at libraries throughout the City,” said City Library Director Anna Tatár. “The City's libraries are loaded with great books for children to enjoy. Young people are encouraged to discover the complexity of the world beyond their own experience through books.”

All 35 of the City's libraries have areas devoted to children and children's books. For a complete schedule of children's programs during the week, the public is encouraged to check out their local library or visit the San Diego Public Library on the City's Web site at <http://www.sandiego.gov/public-library/>.

Children's Book Week is sponsored by the Children's Book Council. Since 1919, librarians, educators, booksellers and families have celebrated Children's Book Week at libraries, schools, bookstores, clubs, private homes – any place where there are children and books.

Founded in 1882, the San Diego Public Library serves approximately 6.5 million people annually.
