Free Parent Educational Workshop to be Held at La Jolla Library

SAN DIEGO – A free Parent Educational Workshop will be offered by Kid Angel Foundation, a California nonprofit 5-1c-3, at the La Jolla-Riford Branch Library on Wednesday, Nov. 3, at 6:30 p.m. The mission of the Kid Angel Foundation is to ensure that children performing one or more years below grade level receive supplemental education and provide proactive tools for parents and childcare providers to use in promoting their child's educational success. Attendees will learn what are your rights as a parent within the school system logic; how to talk to your child's teacher; what questions to ask; what can you do to be proactive with your child's education; what the signs are that your child is struggling in school; how can you motivate your child to do their homework; and more... come listen and learn.

For more information, write to Kid Angel Foundation, P.O. Box 3034, San Diego, CA 92163, or contact the organization by calling 619-293-3155 or 877-583-3254 (toll free), or on the Web at <http://www.kidangel.org>.
