

The San Diego Public Library and
The City Club Proudly Present

A Great American Writers Series Program

Featuring:
Vincent Bugliosi

Author of and speaking on:
"Reclaiming History: The Assassination of President
John F. Kennedy"

Thursday,
August 9, 2007

Time:
7:30PM

Location:
Point Loma/Hervey
Branch Library
3701 Voltaire Street
Map for Directions

This is a Free Public Event
- But Reservations
Required

Phone Reservations:
619-687-3580

Please Note: "Reclaiming History" , which runs 1,632 pages, will be sold at the event for $30 (it is otherwise $49.95). Mr. Bugliosi will autograph copies.

Event Sponsor:

To Register Click Here

Vincent Bugliosi – "The Quintessential Prosecutor"

Vincent Bugliosi is the acclaimed prosecutor who convicted Charles Manson in the bloody Tate/Labianca murders, the most bizarre mass murder case in the recorded annals of crime. The story of that case was immortalized in Bugliosi's bestselling true crime book, "Helter Skelter." The book was turned into a highly successful television movie, which continues to draw high ratings in reruns.

His latest book is, "Reclaiming History: The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy."

Jim Newton, in his review for the Los Angeles Times, wrote, "With this work, Bugliosi has definitively explained the murder that recalibrated modern America. It is a book for the ages." Another reviewer, Charles Williams of Florida, writing for Amazon.com, said this, "Details, details, details. As a Kennedy Assassination conspiracy buff, and one who was convinced of the existence of a conspiracy, this book is a must read for all of America! Bugliosi goes toe to toe with all of the conspiracy theorists and supports his hypothesis that Oswald and Ruby acted alone. Although a huge read, it is well put together and the facts alone make this case...The most fascinating mystery of the 20th century is now solved!"

Another of Mr. Bugliosi's books is "Outrage: The Five Reasons Why OJ Simpson Got Away With Murder," which hit #1 in the New York Times bestsellers list. It is a book no one else dared to write, that no one else could write. It is the only book out of the over 60 on the

Simpson case that was nominated for the Edgar Allen Poe award as best true crime book of the year. Vanity Fair's Dominick Dunne says, "If you only have time to read one book on the criminal trial of OJ Simpson, I would recommend without hesitation, Vincent Bugliosi's Outrage."

The American Bar Association adds, "Outrage is the best book that will ever be written on the OJ Simpson murder trial". Bugliosi's lecture on the trial has been spellbinding audiences throughout the country.

Bugliosi also wrote "The Betrayal of America: How the Supreme Court Undermined the Constitution and Chose Our President."

You may have seen Bugliosi in the British television production in which he prosecuted Lee Harvey Oswald for the assassination of John F. Kennedy against the celebrated defense attorney Gerry Spence. For this special he prepared for six months as if it were an actual case, working over 100 hours per week. The 21-hour docu trial had a real judge and jury, the actual witnesses in the Kennedy case, and no script or actors. The jury convicted Oswald.

Bugliosi received his law degree in 1964 from UCLA Law School. In his career as a prosecutor for the Los Angeles District Attorney's office, he lost only one out of the 106 felony jury trials he prosecuted, including 21 consecutive murder convictions. His most famous trial was that of Charles Manson. But even before that, the starring role of Robert Conrad in the TV series The DA was patterned after him.