

U.S. MNT TO HOLD PUBLIC TRAINING SESSION ON JULY 4 AT QUALCOMM STADIUM IN SAN DIEGO

U.S. Soccer Fans Are Encouraged to Attend Public Training Session at 5 P.M. PT as U.S. Team Preps for International Friendly Against Guatemala

CHICAGO (June 27, 2013) – All U.S. Soccer fans are invited to attend the U.S. Men’s National Team public training session on Thursday, July 4, at 5 p.m. PT at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, Calif.

Admission is free and open to the public. Fans are asked to enter the stadium at Gate B and gates will open to the public at 4:30 p.m.

U.S. Soccer Supporters Club members will receive premium seating at the public training session. If fans wish to take part in this exclusive priority, they can join the U.S. Soccer Supporters Club through ussoccer.com or at the stadium on the day of the training session.

The U.S. will face Guatemala on Friday, July 5 and kickoff at Qualcomm Stadium is set for 8 p.m. PT. The match will be broadcast on NBC Sports Network, UniMas and on ESPN Deportes Radio. Fans can follow live ussoccer.com’s MatchTracker and on Twitter @ussoccer.

Tickets are on sale now at ussoccer.com or by calling toll-free 1-800-745-3000 and at all San Diego-area Ticketmaster outlets (including Walmart stores). Note: Tickets are not sold at Qualcomm Stadium except on the day of the event.

San Diego will host the MNT for the first time since 2006, and the team will be in search of its first ever victory in the city, having posted a 0-5-2 record. This is the fourth appearance at Qualcomm Stadium, where the U.S. is 0-2-1 in matches from 1997-99.
