Achievements

Description

The San Diego Redevelopment Agency created a total of 434 new affordable residential rental units in FY 2010 with its LMIHF.

El Pedregal in San Ysidro - 44 units Los Vientos in Barrio Logan - 88 units Parkside in Centre City - 76 units
 Ten Fifty B in Centre City - 226 units

TEN FIFTY B: In 2007, the market had just begun to collapse, and the construction of the market-rate condominium complex at 1050 B Street in downtown San Diego, California was at a standstill. Affirmed Housing Group and the Redevelopment Agency saw an opportunity with Ten Fifty B. The original vision came to fruition through various creative funding methods and the invaluable involvement of diverse partners as the tallest affordable housing development on the West Coast.

Ten Fifty B is located in the East Village, an area undergoing major transformations with increasing residential and commercial activity. Previously developed with a single story Burger King drive-thru, Ten Fifty B is now a 23 story tower that hosts ground floor retail and 229 units of 100% affordable work-force housing, including 68 studio, 57 one bedroom, 32 two bedroom, and 72 three bedroom apartments. The development is unique because it is a 100% affordable family project in a high-rise building. The Community Plan goal is to maximize density in the city's urban core, eliminating sprawl and co-locating residential and commercial uses in immediate proximity to existing infrastructure. Ten Fifty B epitomizes the spirit of the San Diego Downtown Community Plan, capitalizing on the current momentum of developing a magnificent, vital urban setting. The creation of intensified residential density in immediate proximity to existing transportation infrastructure as well as pedestrian access to the urban core is precisely the intent of the Community Plan. High-rise affordable housing is the future of urban affordable housing, where people can live close to work, transit and cultural amenities.

Description
