These are your Rights:

Minimum Hours Off Per Year

Your employer shall provide 80 paid leave hours for illness, vacation, or personal need and 80 unpaid leave hours for personal or family illness. Part-time employees shall accrue paid leave hours at a rate proportional to full-time employees

Retaliation

You cannot be transferred, demoted, or terminated because you reported violations of the Living Wage Ordinance. All acts of retaliation can be reported by calling or emailing the City of San Diego’s Office of Labor Standards and Enforcement.

Worker Retention

If the City of San Diego terminates its contract with your current employer before the contract’s expiration date and enters into a new contract with another contractor for the same service, you may be eligible to continue working as an employee of the new contractor for a period.

Federal Earned Income Tax

You may be eligible to apply for the Federal Earned Income Tax Credit and receive an annual monetary amount established by the IRS if you qualify. Application forms are available from your employer or by contacting the Internal Revenue Service at (800) 829-1040.
