COUNCILMAN CHRIS CATE STRIKES OUT HUNGER WITH FEEDING AMERICA SAN DIEGO

San Diego, CA: Tomorrow evening, May 5, San Diego City Councilmember Chris Cate (and staff) will be bowling at the Mira Mesa Lanes in support of Feeding America San Diego's mission to end hunger in San Diego.

Feeding America San Diego serves 59,000 children, families and seniors each week by working hand-in-hand with partner agencies, local school districts and a network of volunteers. All proceeds from the inaugural bowling event will benefit Feeding America San Diego's highly-organized distribution model, where every dollar donated turns into six meals for children, families and seniors facing hunger. <http://feedingamericasd.org/events-campaigns/>

"This will be a fun evening of friendly competition and delicious local fare in support of a good cause. I am excited to support Feeding America San Diego's 'Strike Out Hunger' bowling event, which will bring together civic leaders, corporate partners and philanthropic donors to raise awareness to the issues of food insecurity, nutrition and poverty in San Diego," stated Councilman Chris Cate.
