SUBJECT: Appointment and Reappointments to the Balboa Park Committee

It is my pleasure to reappoint David Strickland, Dr. Andrew Kahng, Diana Clark, Don Liddell, and Robert Steppke and to appoint Ken Davenport to the Balboa Park Committee.

Mr. Davenport is the CEO of Mission Edge San Diego, a 501(c)3 organization that focuses on improving the operational effectiveness of nonprofits and developing the next generation of leaders in the social sector. Mission Edge provides back-office, technology and leadership education to more than 50 nonprofits as well as incubation and mentoring services to start-up social enterprises. Prior to joining Mission Edge, Mr. Davenport was a co-founder and President of PerformanceG2, Inc., a national consulting firm specializing in data warehousing, management reporting and IT strategy. He founded several other companies in the technology and healthcare fields, leading all aspects of growth from inception: concept ideation, capital raising, executive leadership and board management. Mr. Davenport's experience includes full profit & loss, budgeting and financial management responsibility in both the for-profit and not-for-profit sectors.

Mr. Davenport actively supports the military and veterans. He works closely with the Armed Services YMCA and serves on the national Board of Directors for the Travis Manion Foundation, an organization that supports military families and assists transitioning veterans. He is a past Partner and Board member at San Diego Social Venture Partners and an Entrepreneur-in-Residence at CONNECT. Mr. Davenport is a current board member at ElderHelp of San Diego.

I look forward to working with Mr. Ken Davenport and am confident he will provide valuable expertise to the Balboa Park Committee.
