MILITARY FAMILIES' HOLIDAYS MADE BRIGHTER WITH FREE CHRISTMAS TREES
The Rosie Network, Walmart, Tom's Adventures Tree Lot, and Councilman Cate to Distribute 100 Trees

San Diego, CA: On Saturday, December 9th from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m., 100 pre-registered military families will receive a free Christmas tree, courtesy of The Rosie Network, Walmart, Tom's Adventures Tree Lot, and Councilmember Chris Cate.

Just last week, the San Diego region was named to the 2018 class of "Great American Defense Communities" by the Association of Defense Communities. With San Diego's population of 1,406,630 people, 106,500 are active duty in the Navy or Marines. Additionally, more than 233,800 military veterans reside in our region, making San Diego home to the world's largest concentration of military families and veterans.

The Rosie Network strengthens military families through entrepreneurial programs and support services, empowering military spouses, transitioning service members, and veteran entrepreneurs toward financial stability and self-sufficiency.

"Thanks to Walmart's generosity, 100 military families will have a tree for Christmas. I am grateful to the men and women who serve our country, protecting our freedoms each and every day," stated Councilmember Chris Cate.

In addition to providing 100 free Christmas trees, Tom's Adventures Tree Lot in Mira Mesa will provide all individuals with a U.S. military ID with a 10% discount on Christmas trees, tree stands, fresh garland, wreaths, Christmas decorations, and delivery.
