COUNCILMEMBER EMERALD CELEBRATES THE GROUND BREAKING OF CITY HEIGHTS SQUARE MINI PARK

When: Wednesday, March 13, 8:00am

Where: 4601 43rd Street just north of University Avenue, south of Polk.

What: Ground Breaking Ceremony of City Heights Square Mini Park.

Who: Mayor Bob Filner
City Councilmember Marti Emerald
Matthew Hervey, Price Charities Representative
Alexei Ochola, La Maestra Community Health Centers
Kathy Parker, Senior Community Centers of San Diego

Visuals: Shovels and hard hats for the ground breaking ceremony.

Why: Celebrating the ground breaking of the City Heights Square Mini Park. City Heights is deficient in park space and the creation of this park supports a safe place for families to engage in positive activities.

The mini park design is a passive theme and improvements include; benches, game tables, picnic tables, overhead trellis, light poles, bike rack, landscape areas, 8' perimeter fence, one 16' gate, 2 8' gates, columns with precast and galvanize steel arch 20' long single beam.
