City Council,
San Diego, Calif.

Dear Sirs:

As parents of two teen age boys who are keenly interested in bicycle riding, we sincerely urge you to consider building a good track, not only from the standpoint of excellent recreation for teen ages but also as a safeguard

to the lives of the boys who enjoy this sport.

Many cities much smaller than San Diego have excellant tracks and are able to have good meets - drawing riders from all over the country.

Again we urge you to give this your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mr. + Mrs. E. L. Truesdale
