Arrest Made in Pacific Beach Shooting

San Diego – On September 13, 2022, at approximately 12:30 a.m., the San Diego Police Communications Center received a call regarding an injured woman on the beach near 700 Reed Avenue. Officers from Northern Division responded to the call and located the woman with bystanders rendering aid. The woman appeared to have at least one gunshot wound to her upper body.

Officers took over lifesaving measures until San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel arrived and transported the woman to a local hospital. Unfortunately, the woman was pronounced deceased at the hospital.

The deceased woman has been identified. She is described as a 65-year-old Hispanic female. Her name will not be released at this time, pending additional family notifications.

San Diego Homicide Detectives responded to investigate. As the investigation progressed, detectives began to gather evidence that the woman's injuries were caused by another person. Probable cause was developed that 27-year-old Daniel Caldera, described as a Hispanic male, was the suspect. Caldera is the victim's son.

On Tuesday, September 13, 2022, at approximately 11:00 a.m., Caldera was contacted and arrested at 4400 Mission Boulevard. He was booked into jail for murder.

Detectives continue to investigate the case, gathering evidence and interviewing witnesses. Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
