City Council Convenes as the Budget Review Committee May Budget Hearings

This week, the Budget Review Committee has begun the task of navigating five days of public hearings to review and scrutinize Mayor Faulconer's proposed budget for Fiscal Year 2016.

My advocacy for this district focuses on my priorities: infrastructure improvements, public safety, and economic development which includes my neighborhood revitalization efforts.

I've asked tough questions of City department heads. I've gone on the record about our need for sidewalks, remediation of the Chollas landfill, ongoing code enforcement support, long overdue maintenance at our Park & Recreation Centers, our need for the new temporary Skyline Hills Fire Station to get back on track with construction, equity in neighborhood services, and much more.

I invite you to get involved and be engaged in the budget process.

- Here is the link to view the schedule of the remaining budget hearings: <http://www.sandiego.gov/citycouncil/cd3/pdf/news/2015/newsrelease150413.pdf>
- You may also watch these proceedings online: http://granicus.sandiego.gov/ViewPublisher.php?view_id=31

I am getting things done but there is so much more to do. I'm passionate about putting our underserved neighborhoods first and making the voices of our communities heard at City Hall.

- 🏠 Neighborhood Revitalization | Each year the City of San Diego's Environmental Services Department conducts special community cleanup events in neighborhoods throughout the City. Areas are selected for these events based upon citizen requests, pledges of community involvement and previous citizen participation levels. On April 25, 2015, this department, along with community volunteers, Ms. Linda Trejo, Ms. Kim Coleman, Mr. Ury Cooper and Mr. Tommy Young conducted a community cleanup in the Valencia Park area. This successful cleanup removed a total of 68.75 tons of waste (62.23 tons of non-recyclables and 6.52 tons of recyclables) consisting of metals and appliances from the neighborhood. Kudos to these community volunteers for their assistance and support.

Infrastructure Improvements: Councilmember Cole cut the blue ribbon on new street improvements on Holly Drive. "I'm proud to say that I've kept my word. I am going to leave this district better than I found it. We can look down Holly Drive and see beautiful new sidewalks, on-street parking, beautiful trees and a resurfaced street," said our Councilmember.
