Council President Gloria Comments on Veto Override Vote

SAN DIEGO, CA (February 11, 2013) – Council President Todd Gloria today issued a statement following the City Council’s vote to let the veto stand of the appointments to the San Diego Unified Port District Board of Commissioners.

“While I understand the request from some colleagues to wait on these important appointments until the District Four vacancy is filled, that action effectively cuts out our City’s ability to weigh in effectively on the Port’s budget and, more importantly, give direction on the Port’s Capital Improvement Program. With the decision today, we are disenfranchising not just the residents of District Four, but all residents of the City of San Diego by not giving them representation on the Port for the next several months.”

The Rules Committee has scheduled a workshop on Port-related issues for March 6, 2013. The Council President will docket consideration of Port appointments after the Committee’s workshop.
