Council President Gloria: “The Fourth Council District Will Be Served” District Four Office Remains Staffed to Serve Residents

SAN DIEGO, CA (January 2, 2013) – Council President Todd Gloria today assured residents of Fourth Council District that they continue to be served following the resignation of Councilmember Tony Young. He also released a memorandum to his colleagues outlining the interim service plan, which is attached.

“The Fourth District office remains open to handle constituent needs, and I am impressed with the staff’s dedication to serve,” said Council President Gloria. “The high level of service that residents came to expect under the leadership of Councilmember Young will continue until a new representative is elected.”

Young’s resignation was effective January 1. The City Council will schedule a special election to fill the vacancy within 90 days. In the absence of a councilmember, the Fourth District staff now reports to the Council President, who will assist them and provide oversight.

Council President Gloria is also moving forward with City Council business with the eight-member City Council.

“San Diegans depend on us to keep moving forward. While I look forward to having a full Council, our progress will continue to strengthen the entire City, including the Fourth District,” Gloria said.

The Fourth District office can be reached at 619-236-6644 or CouncilDistrict4@san diego.gov.
