

Community C.A.R.E. Event
Coordinated Access to Resource and Engagement

Linda Vista/Old Town/ Midway
June 27-29, 2023

Service Model

Community Coordinated Access to Resource and Engagement (C.A.R.E.) Events employ a multi-agency effort, consisting of the City of San Diego Coordinated Outreach personnel, the County of San Diego Health and Human Services, and an array of community partners to engage individuals experiencing unsheltered homelessness in identified priority areas. Field outreach teams canvass the area to engage unsheltered folks and connect them to supportive services necessary to achieve housing stability. The event provides access to case management, health education, public benefits, mental health and substance abuse treatment, primary care referrals, and access to hygiene kits, transportation, and basic essentials.

Base of Operations

The base of operations will be located in the Pechanga Arena to accommodate the inclusion of the 30' County Live Well Mobile Unit, Outreach foot teams and Outreach field teams. For driving direction to the base of operations use 3500 Sports Arena Blvd, San Diego, CA 92110

Location(s) Midway District

The boundaries of the Midway community plan are the San Diego River and Interstate 8 to the north, Interstate 5 to the east, Laurel Street to the south, and Lytton Street and the bluffs above Kenyon Street to the west. In addition to the core Midway area, the community plan includes portions of the historic neighborhoods of Five Points and Middletown.

Hancock St (Kurtz Street to Sports Arena Boulevard):

Located on the northeast side of Pechanga Arena in the Midway District, Hancock St is primary access to small corporate offices like SAIC and McKean Defense Group, The Orchard Senior Living Apartments and Sports Arena Village. This one mile stretch includes a variety of restaurants and runs adjacent to the Ocean Beach Freeway. This area is utilized by an unsheltered population primarily in vehicle habitation both passenger & recreational vehicles.

Sports Arena Blvd (Rosecrans to Pacific Coast Highway):

On both northwest and southwest sides of Sports Arena Blvd is a dense unsheltered encampment from the Goodwill Donation Center to the Amazon Prime Now facility.
