WHEREAS, the City of San Diego (City) desires to preserve the residential character of its neighborhoods and to alleviate the impacts to residential neighborhoods caused by short term residential occupancy (STRO), which is an occupancy of less than a month; and

WHEREAS, some of the impacts are due to unfamiliarity with the local ordinances and regulations, such as those relating to noise, trash collection, and parking; which the City proposes to address by requiring this information to be provided to the occupants of STRO; and

WHEREAS, some of the impacts could also be alleviated by having a specific individual available to contact with concerns and who is responsible for addressing the concerns which the City proposes to address by requiring that this contact information be available to the short term residential guest and to the public; and

WHEREAS, the City has determined, through numerous public meetings, that the impacts to residential neighborhoods caused by STRO are less when a host, as defined, remains in the residence during the STRO, also known as home sharing, and so has determined that home sharing should be incentivized, not require a license, and be regulated differently than whole home STRO; and

WHEREAS, because most negative impacts to neighborhood communities arise from whole home STRO, the City desires to reduce these impacts by requiring a license for whole home STRO and generally limiting overall whole home STRO by only allowing each host one STRO License; and

WHEREAS, a host may obtain one more STRO License for the host's primary residence where the host resides at least six months of the year, because a primary residence is not one that is available to house others long-term, and therefore this limited use of one's own home does not remove any available long-term housing stock; and

WHEREAS, the City currently allows boarder and lodger accommodations and bed and breakfast establishments as separately regulated uses, and the City intends to instead require compliance with the regulations set forth herein and require a Neighborhood Use Permit when the dwelling has five or more bedrooms; and

WHEREAS, whole home STRO in the Coastal Overlay Zone and the Downtown Community Plan area shall require a minimum three night stay because, of the top 10 areas in the City of San Diego with STROs, these two areas combined have more STROs than all of those other areas; therefore, requiring a three night minimum in these areas of highest use will reduce the frequency of guest turnover and the corresponding neighborhood impacts to health, safety, and welfare due to excessive noise, improper storage and disposal of refuse and recyclables, and unfamiliarity with parking regulations where those impacts are most likely to occur; and

WHEREAS, residences in the Mission Beach Planned District have been used for short term residential occupancy for decades, the Mission Beach Planned District has only two hotels and two hostels, and the City desires to preserve this type of long-standing lower-cost coastal visitor serving accommodation by not imposing any STRO License limitation; and

WHEREAS, STRO and the associated visitor spending create jobs, some of which are low paying, and therefore create a need for affordable housing, the City desires to require the payment of a nightly Affordable Housing Impact Fee for STRO to assist with the creation of affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, hosting platforms, as defined, are commonly utilized by hosts to facilitate short term occupancies. Many of these hosting platforms allow hosts to rent out their properties in a fairly anonymous manner, i.e., without the specific address of the properties, the names of hosts responsible for the properties, or other information identifying properties being used on a short term basis; and

WHEREAS, existing law requires hosts to register with the City Treasurer and to collect and remit transient occupancy taxes to the City for rentals involving short term occupancies at the same time as the rent is collected; and

WHEREAS, Host Compliance LLC (Host Compliance) is a privately held company based in San Francisco that is a leading provider of short term rental compliance monitoring and enforcement solutions to local governments; and

WHEREAS, there are 3,686 properties in San Diego rented as short term occupancies registered with the City Treasurer as of May 2018, but data provided in a December 2017 report from Host Compliance indicates that there are actually 11,347 properties being rented on a short term basis in San Diego; and

WHEREAS, this indicates that there are a significant number of properties rented on a short term basis that are not registered with the City Treasurer and therefore not in compliance with existing law; and

WHEREAS, to address this issue, the City wishes to require hosting platforms to inform hosts of the City's registration and tax requirements, to take reasonable care to verify that hosts have lawfully registered with the City before hosting platforms facilitate the completion of a short term occupancy transaction, and if a hosting platform collects the rent as part of its booking service, the hosting platform must also collect the required transient occupancy taxes to prevent a violation of existing law; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, as follows:

Section 1. That Chapter 5 of the San Diego Municipal Code is amended by adding new Article 10, Division 1, sections 510.0101, 510.0102, 510.0103, 510.0104, 510.0105, 510.0106, 510.0107, 510.0108, and 510.0109, to read as follows:

§510.0109 Administration

The City Manager may promulgate reasonable administrative guidelines, rules, interpretations, and regulations to implement and enforce the provisions of this Article.

Section 2. That Chapter 5 of the San Diego Municipal Code is amended by adding new Article 10, Division 2, sections 510.0201 and 510.0202, to read as follows:

Article 10: Short Term Residential Occupancy and Hosting Platforms

Division 2: Hosting Platforms

§510.0201 Requirements for Hosting Platforms

- (a) A hosting platform shall provide written notice of the transient occupancy tax requirements in Chapter 3, Article 5, Division 1, and the requirements for short term residential occupancy in Chapter 5, Article 10, Division 1, to a host listing a dwelling unit through the hosting platform's service prior to any listing. A hosting platform shall also provide written notification to all hosts of any changes to such local regulations. A hosting platform's failure to provide written notification to a host under this section 510.0201(a) shall not excuse a host from complying with any local regulations. Upon request by the City Manager, a hosting platform shall provide documentation to the City Manager demonstrating that the required notification was provided to hosts.
- (b) If a hosting platform collects rent from a short term rental guest, the hosting platform shall collect all required transient occupancy taxes and the Affordable Housing Impact Fee at the same time the rent is collected, and shall remit the taxes and fees on a monthly basis to the City with the completion of a form approved by the City Manager. A hosting platform under Municipal Code section 510.0201(b) shall issue a receipt to each short term rental guest. The hosting platform shall separately state the amount of the transient occupancy tax and the Affordable Housing Impact Fee charged on the receipt and maintain a duplicate of such receipt in accordance with Municipal Code section 510.0202. A hosting platform shall maintain for a period of three years all documentation necessary to demonstrate that the proper amount of taxes and fees have been remitted to the City Manager.

- (c) A hosting platform may only collect a fee for providing booking services after the hosting platform exercises reasonable care to confirm that a dwelling unit has a valid Short Term Residential Occupancy License issued by the City Manager, if applicable, and a Transient Occupancy Registration Certificate as set forth in Municipal Code section 35.0113. Whenever a hosting platform complies with the administrative guidelines promulgated by the City Manager to confirm that the dwelling unit has the Short Term Residential Occupancy License, if applicable, and Transient Occupancy Registration Certificate, the hosting platform shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care for the purpose of Municipal Code section 510.0201(c). A hosting platform's failure to comply with the administrative guidelines promulgated by the City Manager creates a rebuttable presumption that the hosting platform did not exercise reasonable care pursuant to Municipal Code section 510.0201(c).

§510.0202 Records Maintenance and Production

- (a) For a period of three years, a hosting platform shall maintain the following information for each short term residential occupancy transaction:
- (1) The first and last name of the host who offered the short term residential occupancy;

- (2) The exact street address of the dwelling unit, including any unit numbers;
  - (3) The dates for which a short-term rental guest procured occupancy of the dwelling unit using the booking service provided by the hosting platform, and the total number of room nights by reporting period by host;
  - (4) The amount of gross receipts, including but not limited to rent, transient occupancy tax, and Affordable Housing Impact Fee paid for each stay in a format required by the City Manager; and
  - (5) The Short Term Residential Occupancy License number, if applicable, and the Transient Occupancy Registration Certificate number for the short term residential occupancy.
- (b) Subject to applicable law, a hosting platform shall deliver information set forth in Municipal Code section 510.0201(a) to the City Manager upon request. The City Manager may apply auditing procedures necessary to determine the amount of taxes and fees due to the City and to ensure compliance with this Article.

Section 3. That Chapter 9, Article 8, Division 5 of the San Diego Municipal Code is amended by amending section 98.0502, to read as follows:

- (a) There is hereby established a fund to be known and denominated as the San Diego Affordable Housing Fund. The Affordable Housing Fund shall consist of funds derived from the Affordable Housing Impact Fee paid pursuant to Chapter 5, Article 10; the commercial development linkage fees paid to the City pursuant to Chapter 9, Division 6, Article 8 of the San Diego Municipal Code; revenues from the Transient Occupancy Tax as provided in Section 35.0128 of the San Diego Municipal Code; funds derived from in lieu fees paid to the City pursuant to Chapter 14, Article 2, Division 13; revenues received from the use of a shared-equity program pursuant to Section 142.1309(e) of the San Diego Municipal Code; and any other appropriations as determined from time to time by legislative action of the City Council.
