

The tour begins with a brief tour of the Islamic Center, the school, and the resources available at the center.

Imam Taha briefly talks about the origins of Islam and the book. The month of Ramadan and pray times. He then talks about the demographics of Muslims around the world and here in the USA and San Diego.

Imam Taha talks about the struggles of the Muslims in the USA and the results of the backlash. He talks about the important role of the law enforcement and the Islamic Community.

Then I am allowed about 5 to 10 min to talk about my role and the department's roles in treating the Islamic Community of San Diego.

Q & A at the end.
