Police Investigate Homicide in San Ysidro

San Diego – At 11:51 a.m. on March 18, 2020, San Diego Police Officers responded to a report of a possibly deceased man in a motel room in the 100 block of East Calle Primera, in the San Ysidro neighborhood. As the officers and personnel from the San Diego Fire-Rescue Department assessed the man's injuries to begin providing aid, they realized he had trauma to the upper body and had already succumbed to his injuries. The man was pronounced deceased at the scene.

Investigators from the San Diego Police Homicide Unit were called to the scene and are handling the investigation. At this time, very little is known about the circumstances leading up to the man's death, although it does not appear to be a random attack.

Investigators are in the process of interviewing friends and family to develop potential leads and determine who the man may have been with.

The deceased man has been identified, but his name is not being released at this time. He is described as a 22 year-old Hispanic man.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
