Suspect Wanted in Home Invasion Robbery

San Diego – The San Diego Police Department is asking for the community’s help in identifying the suspect of a home invasion robbery which occurred early this morning in the Scripps Ranch neighborhood.

At about 2 a.m., a man took house keys from an unlocked car which was parked in the driveway of a home located at 10000 Rock Creek Drive. The man then used the keys to try and enter the front door of the home. After several minutes, the man was unable to open the front door, so he went to the side of the home and entered through an unlocked door. The homeowner awoke to the noise and confronted the suspect. The suspect pointed a handgun at the homeowner, took his car keys and then left in the stolen vehicle. A short time later, the car was found abandoned at 13000 Calle De Las Rosas in the Rancho Penasquitos neighborhood.

The suspect is described as a white male, 20’s, 5’8” tall, clean shaven wearing a hoodie and a backpack. He also appears to have a tattoo on his right hand. The video below was retrieved from the homeowner’s Ring camera.

We want the community to be aware of this incident and anyone with information about this suspect is encouraged to call SDPD’s Robbery Unit at 619-531-2299 or CrimeStoppers at 888-580-8477.
