Police Investigate Homicide in Ridgeview-Webster Neighborhood

San Diego – At 10:28 p.m. on June 25, 2020, the San Diego Police Communications Center received a 911 call regarding a possible stabbing victim in the 4300 block of Home Avenue. When the officers arrived, they found a 31 year-old Black male with apparent trauma to his upper torso. The officers called for San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel and began providing aid to the victim. The victim was transported to a local hospital where he underwent emergency surgery and was transferred to the Intensive Care Unit. Unfortunately, the man eventually succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced deceased at the hospital.

Investigators from the San Diego Police Homicide Unit were called to the scene to conduct the investigation. The initial investigation by patrol officers determined the incident occurred in the area of 4600 Home Avenue and the victim drove himself to the location he was found. It is still early in the investigation and detectives will be searching for evidence and interviewing potential witnesses. The only suspect information available at this time is a black male wearing a dark colored hooded sweatshirt.

The victim has been identified but his name is not being released at this time.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
