San Diego Police Investigate Homicide in the East Village Neighborhood

San Diego - On Monday, July 8, 2019 at about 10:38 pm, the San Diego Police Department's Communication Center received a radio call of a shooting at the 400 block of 17th street.

Officers arrived on scene a few minutes later and located a 27-year old black male at that location with gunshot wounds to his upper body. Officers performed life saving measures on the victim until relieved by San Diego Fire Department Paramedics. The victim was transported to a local hospital by medics where he was initially listed in stable condition.

Today at approximately 6:00 am, the department was notified by the hospital that the victim's condition deteriorated and he was not going to survive his injuries.

Unfortunately, the man succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced deceased at about 7:00 am.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives have taken over this investigation. Although it is very early in the investigation, we have learned the victim was in the area of 400 17th Street when an unknown race male wearing dark clothing, walked up and fired several rounds at the victim striking him. The suspect was seen getting into a dark colored vehicle which fled from the scene.

The victim has been identified as 27-year old Julius Davis of San Diego.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
