San Diego Police Investigate Homicide in Old Town

San Diego—On Saturday, July 21, 2018 at about 2:04 am, the San Diego Police Department received a radio call of an injured person in the 4500 block of Pacific Highway in the neighborhood of Old Town.

Officers located a male lying on the sidewalk at that location who had sustained lacerations and trauma to his upper torso. San Diego Fire Department Paramedics were at the scene and rendered aid to the male. Unfortunately, he succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced deceased.

Homicide Detectives were called to the scene and are investigating this case. Several witnesses are being interviewed in hopes of developing leads.

The victim has been identified as 65-year old Steven Barnes of San Diego.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
