PUBLIC OFFICIAL, POLICE AND COMMUNITY TEAM UP TO COMBAT CRIME IN CLAIREMONT

San Diego, CA: On Thursday, July 2 at 12:30pm, San Diego City Councilman Chris Cate, in partnership with the San Diego Police Department and Clairemont Neighborhood Watch programs will be unveiling dozens of new Neighborhood Watch signs for the community.

“Neighborhood Watch programs are one of the most effective crime prevention programs in the nation. It brings citizens and law enforcement together to deter crime and make our communities safer,” stated Chris Cate, San Diego City Councilman.

Several incidents ranging from burglaries to shootings have recently occurred in the neighborhood of Clairemont. “Neighborhood Watch brings neighborhoods together to establish partnerships with police to combat crime,” said Holly Tafoya, San Diego Police Department.

“Neighborhood Watch is a crime prevention program that enlists the active participation of Clairemont residents in cooperation with the San Diego Police Department. Together, we work to reduce crime, solve problems, and improve the quality of life in Clairemont,” stated Adriana Enloe, Clairemont Neighborhood Watch Coordinator.
